Board Change

Escape Hunt (AIM: ESC), a global leader in the high growth escape rooms sector, announces that Alistair Rae has stepped down today as Chief Financial Officer in order to take up another appointment.

Graham Duncan, who has worked with the Company since before its re-admission to AIM in May 2017, has agreed to provide the necessary finance support by assuming the role of interim Chief Financial Officer. Alistair has agreed to assist Graham with a hand-over during the coming weeks. Graham is a chartered accountant with more than 20 years capital markets experience; until 2013, he was a capital markets director with Mazars LLP in London.

The Board has commenced the process to appoint a successor.

Richard Harpham, Chief Executive Officer commented: "Alistair leaves behind a well-established and proficient Finance Team, which will support Graham in his interim role. Alistair leaves with the Board's very best wishes and thanks for his contribution over the last two years. The search for a permanent replacement is underway. We look forward to updating shareholders in due course."
